

DISTRICT HIGHLIGHTS

Joseph Bera III

Number 9
February 17, 2004

- Congratulations to Seniors Jennifer Smith, who ranks first in her class and has been named this year's Valedictorian and Daniella Vargas who ranks second and has been named Salutatorian.
- Congratulations to Michael Panglinan and Jennifer Smith who have been named as Finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program.
- Amanda Wahl and Courtney Lynch will represent Sayreville in the Middlesex County School Boards Association 2003-04 Student Recognition Program. They will be honored at a banquet on March 3rd.
- I am pleased to announce that the High School's S.T.E.A.D. Club has been recognized by Babyland Family Services for its generous donation of Christmas gifts.
- On January 26th the SEA honored the winners of the Pride in Education contest. They are:

K	- Alyxa Dill
1	- Brandi Titone
2	- Melissa Rasimowicz - Brandon Bielak
3	- Maggie Bera
4	- Erika Donahue
5	- Harshitha Mannam
6	- Meaghan Brandt
8	- Melissa Mocarski
9	- Short Lee
10	- Jerell Snell
11	- Nagal Ramadan

- I am very pleased to inform you that Arleth School teacher Beth Ann Bulla has received the 2004 Veterans of Foreign Wars Teacher of the Year Award.
- Wilson School teacher Marilyn Zeichner and her students have been selected to participate in a writing study being conducted by the Educational Testing Service.

And, finally

- I am proud to announce that the Sayreville School District, along with the Princeton Public Schools has been selected to pilot the Department of Education's N.J. Smart Program. The new program will be used to replace many of the major reports we are required to submit to the State. Sayreville was selected primarily in recognition of the expertise of Karen Waranowicz, a member of our Technology Department.