

DISTRICT HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Ronald Van Tine

Number 15
January 11, 2005

- Congratulations to the following students who have been nominated to receive the Edward J. Bloustein Distinguished Scholar Award:

Subhapiya Jayarangan
Gregory Kuczynski
Frank Maniscalco
Aswin Mannepalli
Deborah Marion
Ajay Patel
Janaki Patel
Vishal Patel
Kamleish Persad
Michael Ross
Elizabeth Szamreta
Anuja Trivedi
Alison Wilhelm

- Congratulations to Wilson School ASI teacher Amy Haspel for receiving special recognition from Teacher to Teacher Publishing Company for her role in overseeing a math solving program and training teachers in grades one through three. Due to the success of this program, it has now been adopted in grades one through six.
- Congratulations to the staff and students at Arleth School for their participation in the "Helping Hearts" program geared at having second grade students assist and become role models for the kindergarten students during lunch and recess.
- Congratulations to Sayreville Upper Elementary School music teacher Aimee Coleman for being chosen to participate in the New Jersey Orchestra Master Teachers' Collaborative.
- Congratulations to Sayreville Middle School students, who under the supervision of Mrs. Mazur, collected over 1,500 items for the Sayreville Food Bank. To increase student awareness of the plight of the hungry, Mrs. McGough's TAG students wrote and performed skits to encourage their peers to donate food.
- Congratulations to the Lion's Club Posters for Peace Contest winners. The first-place winner will compete at a national level. They are:

1 st Place	-	Maureen McKenna
2 nd Place	-	Anjali Verner
3 rd Place	-	Samantha Garcia
- Congratulations to the Music Department and Mr. Hudock for coordinating and performing an excellent winter concert for students, staff and parents at all schools throughout the District.

/mep